

A MAD IN AMERICA + IIPDW VIRTUAL EVENT

Inspiration, Hope, and Healing: Psychiatric Drug Withdrawal Success Stories

MAY 11, 2023 9AM PDT, 12PM EDT, 5PM BST, 6PM CEST

Three remarkable stories of challenge and triumph over the discontinuation of psychiatric drugs followed by a discussion and audience Q&A.

Please join Mad in America and the International Institute for Psychiatric Drug Withdrawal as we hear the incredible success stories of special guest speakers who endured grueling withdrawals from antidepressants and benzodiazepines. These insightful panelists will share information and inspiration for those on the journey, their loved ones, practitioners, and anyone interested in the topic.

REGISTER HERE

About the guest speakers:

Brooke Siem is a recognized writer and award-winning chef who healed from withdrawal. She is the author of May Cause Side Effects and Food Network "Chopped" Champion.

Gemma Da Costa works for the UK's Crown Prosecution Service. After healing from withdrawal, she began supporting others and created a YouTube channel to share hope.

Michael Priebe is a writer and wellness coach who experienced withdrawal. Through his Lovely Grind coaching, blog, and YouTube channel, he inspires thousands of people each month.

James Moore experienced withdrawal and is an advocate for greater awareness of tapering safely. He hosts and produces the Let's Talk Withdrawal and Mad in America podcasts.

Tickets: $10 USD. Funds will support Mad in America and IIPDW to continue their work as non-profit organizations. We understand that not everyone can afford the expense at this time. Please type in the code successstories for a free ticket as needed.